Your signature on the private international money order is your consent for the delivery of your person back to the British Empire to exist as its subject.

This International Public Notice is the second warning towards those that believe they are helping people and have not used common sense when dealing with this issue. The Government of The United States of America has legal remedies in place to deal with foreign debt claims, however there are some that chose to ignore those processes and therefore all liability for your decisions are yours and yours alone. The Government of The United States of America, the office of the Treasury or the General Post Office cannot and will not be involved or used as some sort of safe haven when international torts are committed or foreign charges are filed against your person.
